WORSHIP

Holy Week

By: Tripp Martin

March 21st

Fifth Sunday in Lent
Jeremiah 31:31-34
John 12:20-33

March 28th

Palm Sunday
Mark 11:1-11
Psalm 118:1-2, 19-29

Lay Worship Leader for March:
Blake Knight

As the journey of Lent unfolds, we walk closer to the events of Holy Week, which was called “The Great Week” in the fourth century. It is the week, which brings into focus the steadfast love of God and the solidarity of the ways of Jesus. It moves from shouts of joy on Palm Sunday, to the cries of despair on Good Friday, to the silence of Holy Saturday, and to the surprise of Easter morning.

When we heard that Jesus would be born and his name would be “Emmanuel,” or “God is with us,” we did not anticipate how the events of Holy Week would reveal the depths of his name’s meaning. God is with us on the mountaintop and in the valley! Even when we cannot see the light, it emerges from the darkness, surprising us yet again.

We are thankful that this is a shared journey! We do not have to face the events of Holy Week alone. It was about a year ago when the pandemic of Covid-19 started altering our gatherings. In the last year, the congregation has remained connected, reaching out to one another and sharing this journey.

REMINDERS

Online Giving

Online giving is an additional option for supporting the church.

Worship

Our worship service is live streamed on the website each week.

AuburnFBC.org/Live

As we enter Holy Week, we are thankful for one another, for this week is full of ups and downs, twists and turns. We find Mary anointing and Judas betraying, Peter denying and Pilate avoiding. Jesus is washing feet, embracing suffering, and standing alone, so that we never have to stand alone.

We will worship on Palm Sunday, both in-person and over livestream, connected by our “Hosannas.” We will have a gathering on Maundy Thursday on Zoom, celebrating the bread and cup as widely as we can. On Good Friday, we will worship in the sanctuary and virtually, facing the darkness together, which precedes the Light of the World on Easter.

We are grateful for the events of Holy Week, as they usher us again into God’s steadfast love. We are also thankful for each step we take, transitioning from being apart to gathering again! We will remain cautious, as we give thanks for sharing this journey with one another!

Gratitude

During this year, we give thanks for Bryan King, who has served as our organist for over twenty years. Bryan has served Auburn FBC diligently and with tremendous skill. After so many years of faithful service, Bryan has decided to retire later this year. We will look forward to celebrating with him and offering our gratitude at the appropriate time. Due to the limitations of the pandemic, the timeline for our celebration will remain open-ended. Bryan has been an important part of our family of faith, providing music for our worship. The church will begin the process of searching for an organist in the weeks to come.

Ad Hoc Committee Update for Worship & Gatherings

Each week, the church office will email a sign-up list for up to 20 individuals to attend worship. Those without access to email can call the church office and leave a message, requesting to be added to the list. If no slots are available, those names will be carried forward to the next week. If the level of cases in Lee County rises significantly prior to the worship service, in-person attendance will be postponed. Masks and physical distancing will be required, and those in high-risk categories are encouraged to continue watching worship via livestream unless they have been fully vaccinated.

The committee remains hopeful that case numbers will continue to improve, and this is the first step towards a larger scale return to gatherings at the church. We also remain grateful for the congregation's patience and resilience.
